Compass Ministries: Non-Profit Organization Information

Mission Statement

Compass Ministries is dedicated to empowering and supporting missionary families and global workers by providing essential mental, emotional, and spiritual resources. Our goal is to ensure that those who serve on the frontlines and transition home have the care and guidance they need to thrive.

Organization Overview

Founded in 2012, Compass Ministries operates as a recognized non-profit organization committed to serving the unique needs of missionaries and their families. We believe that by offering quality support and resources, we can help individuals and families remain effective in their service both in the field and at home.

Programs and Services

Our organization offers a range of services designed to meet the holistic needs of missionary families, including:

- Counseling Services: Professional counseling to address emotional and psychological challenges.

- Coaching Programs: Personalized coaching to enhance performance and personal development.
- Spiritual Direction: Guidance to nurture spiritual growth and help navigate faith-related challenges.
- Workshops and Retreats: Educational events that promote well-being and resilience.

Financial Support

As a non-profit, Compass Ministries relies on the generosity of donors, grants, and community partnerships to fund our programs and services. 100% of donations go directly toward supporting our mission and enhancing the resources we provide. We operate with transparency and accountability, ensuring that every contribution has a meaningful impact.

Get Involved

You can play a vital role in supporting our mission! Here are ways you can get involved:

- Make a Donation: Every contribution helps us provide services to those in need.
- Volunteer: Join our team and contribute your skills and time.
- Spread the Word: Share our mission and services with your network to help us reach more families.
